

Here is a selection of the testimonials from 2009's online conference stream....

"Thank you, the PR Week Online Conference was fantastic! Haven't watched the whole thing but planning to -- it's really VERY helpful. Thought the set-up was brilliant! To see the presentation side by side with the audio/video on the presenter was great! It was an excellent starting point to learn about what works for PR in the new social media arena - - there were some great learnings here and I look forward to exploring the archive in more detail."
